ARTISPHERE 2017

COLLABORATIVE ARTS EVENT APPLICATION

May 12 – 14, 2017

Artisphere's Mission: As an annual signature event for Greenville, SC Artisphere seeks to . . .

- Celebrate the arts and make them accessible to all Greenville residents and visitors
- Showcase Greenville's local cultural offerings alongside some of the most talented visual and performing artists from across the country and beyond
- Highlight the power of the arts to enhance quality of life and build community
- Educate, inspire and entertain a diverse audience
- Generate tourism and stimulate economic development

More information is included on the Artisphere website at www.artisphere.org.

Festival Outreach Requirement: Artisphere strives to provide the opportunity for Greenville's outstanding visual and performing artists to perform or exhibit in celebration of the Artisphere Festival. Artisphere is committed to celebrating the arts by providing a high-quality event that attracts, entertains, educates, inspires, and enriches a diverse audience. All collaborative performances and events must be in keeping with the mission of Artisphere.

Application and Selection Process: Collaborative events will be selected based on adherence to Artisphere's mission, feasibility of implementation, and accessibility to public. All applications must be received by Friday, February 24, 2017.

Please sign below if, as a 2017 Collaborative Arts Event, you agree to the following:

- The activities for which collaboration is sought will be administered under the supervision of the applicant.
- Artisphere will be kept apprised of any major organizational changes.
- All publicity and program information containing the Artisphere logo must be approved by Artisphere with the understanding that failure to do so may result in the cancellation of the collaboration.
- Marketing (through social media, ads, press releases, mailings) to promote your organization's Collaborative Event is encouraged
- Volunteer/staff support during the Artisphere collaborative event is the sole responsibility of the applicant.
