

ARTISPHERE

ARTISPHERE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WELCOMES NEW COMMUNITY LEADERS, ARTS ADVOCATES

Greenville, SC- October 2024-The 21st annual Artisphere presented by Prisma is being planned with the help of five new board members. The Artisphere Board of Directors is responsible for establishing the direction of Greenville's nationally ranked fine arts show and raising the revenue needed to execute the three-day, free community event.

Chair of the Board of Directors, Jennifer McClure, stated "We are pleased to welcome new and returning board members to kick off Artisphere's third decade of excellence. Their experience and community relationships will immediately impact the festival."

Judith Aughtry-Community Volunteer

Judith Aughtry has spent most of her life in the upstate; she graduated from Clemson with a degree in English, and in her late 20's married Bo Aughtry and had 2 sons. She has served boards such as United Way, Meyer Center, YMCA, the Junior League, the State Board of First Steps.

After the last few years in Charleston, she has moved back to Greenville and is once again ready to invest her time and heart in this very vibrant community. As a past chair of the board of directors, Judith feels that Artisphere gets better and better every year, and she looks forward to being a part of the excitement again!

Mary Margaret Bannister-Community Volunteer

Mary Margaret Bannister is a Greenville native and a former elementary school teacher for Greenville County Schools. Mary Margaret is a mother of four children and has been actively involved in her children's schools, as well as her community. She has served as PTA president, Chair of Freaky Friday fundraiser and served on the Board of the Student Improvement Council. She has served on the Gower Pool Board and also held the position of the Gower Swim Team Coordinator. Mary Margaret has volunteered at the McCall Hospice House of Greenville and Hands on Greenville. She is a member of First Presbyterian Church.

Meredith Green-Furman University

Meredith Green has served Furman University as its General Counsel since 2017, directing and overseeing the university's legal matters. Prior to joining Furman, she worked at the law firm McGuireWoods LLP in Charlotte, NC. Meredith serves on the Law Board of Visitors at Wake Forest University as well as on the boards of directors for several insurance companies serving the higher education industry. A native of Charleston and the mother of two sons, Meredith graduated from Furman with degrees in psychology and French, and she received her J.D. from Wake Forest University.

Clarence Sevillian, MBA, MPT- Prisma Health

Clarence Sevillian is Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Prisma Health, where he oversees all operations for the organization's acute, medical group/ambulatory and post-acute areas.

Prisma is a private nonprofit regional health company and the largest health care organization in South Carolina. Its more than 29,000 team members serve 1.5 million unique patients annually in a 21-county market area that covers 50% of South Carolina. Prisma's goal is to create a better state of health by enhancing clinical quality, patient experience and access to affordable care; by conducting clinical research to bring the latest advances to treatments; and by training the next generation of health providers.

Committed to leading by example, inspiring others to achieve their full potential, and advocating for the health and well-being of the community, Sevillian strives to foster a culture of trust and teamwork among physicians and team members through communication and inclusiveness in decision-making. Sevillian earned a bachelor's degree with a major in mathematics from Vanderbilt University. He also received a bachelor's degree with a major in health sciences and a Master of Physical Therapy (MPT) degree from the University of Michigan–Flint. He earned his Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree at Lawrence Technological University.

Sevillian is an active member of several community and health-related boards, including the South Carolina Institute of Medicine & Public Health (IMPH), ATI Physical Therapy, Artisphere, Greenville County Chamber, State of South Carolina Chamber, Prisma Health Upstate Foundation and Contessa Health.

He and his wife, Arteka, have two grown daughters. In his spare time, he enjoys spending time with his family, exercising and traveling.

John Warren-Warren Capital

John Warren is a successful entrepreneur and infantry Marine. He recently co-authored the Harper Collins national bestselling book, Lead Like a Marine.

He is the former founder and CEO of Lima One Capital, a specialty mortgage finance company that has grown into one of the largest lenders for residential real estate investors and homebuilders in the country. Lima One has been recognized as the Fastest Growing Company in South Carolina, one of the Best Places to Work in SC, and the Most Ethical Company in SC.

John earned a B.A. from Washington and Lee University and an M.B.A. from New York University's Stern School of Business. He lives in Greenville with his wife Courtney and their three children.

About Prisma Health Prisma Health is a not-for-profit health company and the largest healthcare system in South Carolina. With nearly 30,000 team members, 18 acute care and specialty hospitals, 2,947 beds, approximately 300 outpatient sites, and nearly 5,000 employed and clinically integrated network physicians and providers, Prisma Health serves more than 1.2 million unique patients annually in its 21-county market area that covers 50% of South Carolina. Prisma Health's goal is to improve the health of all South Carolinians by enhancing clinical quality, the patient experience and access to affordable care, as well as conducting clinical research and training the next generation of medical professionals. For more information, visit PrismaHealth.org.

About Artisphere

Artisphere is a highlight of Greenville's cultural calendar and ranked #1 by USA Today's 10Best. Artisphere is attended by approximately 100,000 patrons annually and has an estimated economic impact of $14.1 million on the Greenville community. Artisphere is a 501(c) (3) not for profit organization. For information visit www.artisphere.org.